CITY AND DISTRICT. PURE POTOMAC WATER. Capt. Symons' Filtration Report.

HIS VIEWS AS TO THE DESIRABILITY, PRACTI

CABILITY AND COST OF CLARIFYING THE DRINKING WATER OF THE CAPITAL CITY. It was mentioned in yesterday's STAR that there had been submitted to the Senate a response from the Secretary of War to the Senate resolution of March 8th last, directing him to ascertain the advisability and practicability of providing the water supply of the District with filters and other appliances for cleaning and purifying the water. Capt. Symons reports that the advisability of providing the water supply with filters, etc., for puritying, depends upon its desirability (its practicability) and the cost. He says that the water, as at present water, as at present supplied, is not sufficiently good for a city like Washington and not satisfactory in all respects to the people using it, and that it is possible to remedy its defects by the proper treatment. DESIRABILITY OF FILTRATION. He asserts that the water is unsatisfactory, as t has been more or less muddy all winter, and its appearance alone establishes its unsatisfactory condition. Citizens and visitors are de cided in advocating purification. Filtration is practiced by many householders and establishments, and though but a partial remedy the aggregate cost in fitting houses with filters, etc., is large. Domestic filtration is more hable to be a source of danger than a shield from it. The amount expended in imperfect domestic filtration would go far towards defraying the expense of the most perfect clarification of the entire supply. Dealers in mineral waters take advantage of the muddy condition of the water supply to impress the dangers of drinking "Potomac sewerage" upon the people, and thus increase their trade. With the says the aqueduct authorities did all they could to remedy exciting evils, but they cannot do it thoroughly until means are provided. THE MEDICAL SOCIETY REPORT. He quotes the report of the committee of the Medical society to the effect that many of the from joining the Knights of Labor was in purevils complained of would be remedied by suance of a settled policy to have no entangling G, W. McLanahan and Wm. J. Siviey.

year; Clear, 258 days; slightly turbid, 21 days; turbid, : 6 days; very turbid, 55 days. The report states that the table shows conclusively that the Potomac is not a clear water river. Over one-half the time its waters are more or less turbid. He says that while the water is comparatively clear in the distributing reservoir about two-thirds of the year it does not by any means follow that it is free from organic matter. It is generally about the month of May that the fish-like odor comes to the water and during its prevalence the water is clear and PRACTICABILITY OF FILTRATION. The report states that filtration of water on in our own country, and to a very large extent in Europe where many cities have filtration works of great magnitude, and that these works are considered essential to the well-being of water-users, and the laws require them to be kept in operation. Very marked sanitary benefits have resulted from their adoption. As to methods "natural filtration" is pronounced the commonest and simpliest of water clarification, and it consists in taking advanbottom land it is of a compact clayey nature. The filter selected as most desirable is one made by the Newark Filtering company, and it is proposed to locate the works just south of the distributing reservoir, and between it and the In conclusion, Capt. THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION. The Bishop's Address-Business Trans-

At the afternoon session of the convention of dress, in which he said that there had been eighteen cases of trouble of one kind and another between rectors and vestries, but the most of them were now settled. part of the bishop's address relating to the qualification of voters. A committee, consisting of Rev. Messrs. J. S. B. Hodges, S. T. D.; W. A. Leonard, D. D., and C. D. Andrews, was appointed to consider with the committee on ways and means the financial status of the diocese. The report on cierical sustentation showed that of the 68 clergy outside of Baitimore and Washington the average salary was $752.82, though 41 of these parishes have rectories and 30 have glebe lands.

Bishop Paret said that he had learned that the amount received had been increased by later contributions, etc., to $9,667.68. The committee had begun the year with an indebtedness of $224.43, and he hoped some means would be adopted to wipe it out before the close of the convention.

Rev. Dr. Elliott appealed to the congregation to respond to the bishop's suggestion. Judge Wm. A. Stewart offered to start the subscription with $25. Rev. Dr. Giesy piedged the Church of the Epiphany for a like amount, and other rectors and laymen followed in rapid succession. The amount realized was $500, and the convention sang the Doxology. A committee consisting of Rev. Messrs. George B. Johnson, Campbell Fair, D.D., W. L. Hyland, D.D.; Messrs. Charles Markell, W. R. Griffith and E. P. Keech were appointed, to whom, with the committee on canons, shall be referred the canons relating to cierical support. The convention than adjourned until this morning. Bishop Paret said that he had learned that

CONDITION OF THE WATER FOR SEVERAL YEARS. In order to make his report complete Capt. Symons incorporates a description of the water supply system here. He also submits a table showing the condition of the water during the fiscal years from 1878 to 1885. For the seven years given the water averaged as follows each years given the water averaged as follows each the condition of Labor biamed him for the failure of the first that would result from filtration.

These were boycotts, strikes, the southwest troubles, the relation of the Knights of Labor to other organizations, and the instituting of new assemblies. Since the delegates have arrived many of them have plans that they would like to spring upon the special session. One of these plans is to agitate the subject of the diocese of Maryland in Epiphany church the government regulating the railroads. A yesterday Bishop Paret read his annual admember of the order from Allegany, Pa., has prepared a long address upon this subject, and the delegates from his district will try to secure a hearing for him. To bring this observance about the convention, canons and vestry acts might be bound with the convention journal. The report also touched upon the inadequacy of some salaries of clergymen, due in part to the inconsiderate pushing up of the free-seat system, and urged the building up of an endowed episcopal fund. The plan proposed is for each partish or congregation to contribute one per parish or congregation to contribute one per cent of the collections, exclusive of the clergy-man's salary. The work among the colored people is progressing, there having been confirmed during the year about 250 of that race. One thousand dollars have been realized from the bishop's penny collection, and $2,173.12 were the offerings at episcopal visitations. During the past eleven months 2,062 persons have been confirmed, 228 sermons preached by the bishop, 136 addresses made, I deposition, 5 ordinations (3 priests, 2 deacons), besides 70 persons confirmed in the diocese of Easton, rendered necessary by the death of Bishop Lay.

This is against the rules of the order, and we can admit no strikers while they are out. I told him so, but he replied that he held a commission as organizer and would do as he pleased. I told parish or congregation to contribute one per that gentleman said: "It is true that such a the cars, arrived from Kingston. A great crowd organizer and would do as he pleased. I told him he could institute the assembly, but it would never receive a charter. We need sober, industrious representative men in those posi-tions. It would make hard feelings to ask for their commissions, so it is proposed to make them ante up from the chief organizer down. New organizers will be commissioned as last as possible, and will be selected because of their fitness for the position."
